Principal Celebrations

Thank you for always being so willing to offer your help Jimi, Nevaeh, Kaylee, Quincey-Lee

Lois' Principal Piece

Thank you for supporting your kura with offers of support to water blast and spread the cushion bark (when it arrives). As the age old saying goes 'many hands make light work'. Unity is strength.

Ma tini ma mano ka rapa te whai.

By many, by thousands, the work will be accomplished.

You have received a returnable Duffy book bag which has your progress report whanau letters, learning journals, how you can help at home activities and National Standard information included. The learning journals and Duffy bag MUST come back. There is a feedback sheet in each journal for you and your whanau to comment and give written feedback on. Opportunities are available to meet with the kaiako after school this week to discuss these letters.

We look forward to seeing you on Tuesday July 5 to join in with our Fun Run and walk afternoon. Postponement day will be Thursday—we will text and FB postponement. Come down and have a shared lunch with your whanau, run/walk with them to prepare for next terms cross country. Encourage everyone to get involved, get sponsorship and raise money for more lunchtime activity gear. It's a WIN WIN, each child who raises $10 or more gets to choose their own toy - each child has a sponsorship form or Go online - all details in the brochure.

Virtue: Honesty is being truthful and sincere: When we are honest, we are able to enjoy peace of mind and maintain self-respect. We build strength of character and are trustworthy and can be relied on.

Deep Sea Divers

Last Monday at school we dressed up. Unique, me, Syesha and Cayden dressed up as monkeys. Cayden was Caesar and I was a brown and black ape. I had fun because I like monkeys. By Ihaka

Last Monday in class I dressed up as a brown monkey. I pretended I was Caesar and I pretended I was a baby monkey. IT was very fun because I pretended I was a monkey. By Cayden

I dressed up as a fairy too. I was wearing a fairy costume. By Sacha-Leigh

I am a fairy. I am pink. I am beautiful. I am pretty because my skirt is beautiful.

By Lisa

I pretended I was a cow. I dressed up as a cow.

Thank you for your letter
We accept your challenge as unfettered. Our special birthday Some history and our many projects in Africa. Many thanks did you become a single? Do you like being a King of Africa
From SAJ (22 IVO)

I have had King before.
 I thank you for the other one which is a challenge to imagine that spirit within me may return from the other. I have been in the world of the in the world. The other King is a very good man. I have been in the world of the King.
 The life is very good.
